

Good day,

My name is Mr. Peter Hans I work in the bank here in Netherlands. I found your address through my countries international Web directory. During our last meeting and examination of the bank accounts here in the Netherlands, my department found a dormant account with an enormous sum of 6.500.000,00 (Six million five hundred thousand Euros) which was deposited by late Mr. Williams from England.

Before his death he transferred the sum of 6.500.000,00 (Six million five hundred thousand Euros) to a bank here in Netherlands. From our investigation he had no beneficiary or next of kin to claim these funds. Only a foreigner can stand as next relatives or next of kin. The request of a foreigner as a next of kin is based on the fact that the depositor was a foreigner and somebody in the Netherlands cannot stand as the next of kin.

I need your permission as the next relative or next of kin of our deceased customer, so that the funds can be released and transferred to your account, at the end of the transaction 40% will be for you and 60% will be for my colleague and I. Am still working with the bank that's the actual reason why I need a second party or person, to stand and work with me and apply to the bank here in the Netherlands as the next of kin. I have in my possession all the necessary documents to have this transaction carried out successfully.

Further information will be provided upon the receipt of your prompt response and I want you to know that there is no risk involved. I will need us to work together if you are interested and I assure you that I will provide all useful information and documentation as this business needs urgent attention as there is no much time to waste.

Note: This transaction is 100% risk free and is absolutely confidential.

Best Regards
Mr. Peter Hans
Private Email: peterhan.s@aol.com